

"THE BAYSTATE'S MOST CREATIVE FESTIVAL" -WCVB
APRIL 26 – MAY 5, 2019

Recycled Instrument Studio Tour – Free event at Fireseed Arts, Framingham

Visitors played instruments, learned about how recycled materials are made into performance grade guitars and drums, and were invited to jam at the solar powered studios at a live interactive concert by “Johnny Fireseed and the Junkyard Dogs.”

Cape Symphony Open Rehearsal – Free event at the Barnstable Performing Arts Center

The Cape Symphony opened its doors to the public for a rare, behind-the-scenes rehearsal for the highly anticipated American Mavericks concert, featuring the music of Leonard Bernstein, John Adams and Philip Glass. Led by Artistic Director and Conductor Jung-Ho Pak.

Brazilian Drum & Dance Parade – Free event by Grooversity and Young Audiences of MA

The drumming ensemble brought the Brazilian street festival experience to the Boston Common – an interactive percussionist party where everyone was invited to join the parade!

Cardamom Quartet: Open Salon – Free event at We Are Hair Salon

At this preview concert, quartet members performed songs that inspired conversations among the audience members who were seated in-the-round in this alternative performance space.

Airmen of Note Air Force Jazz Band – Free event by Franklin High School

The internationally-acclaimed United States Air Force Jazz Band from Washington, D.C. made their way to Central Massachusetts to conduct an open workshop with Franklin High School students and present a concert boasting big band music and arrangements featuring 18 active duty Airmen musicians.

First Friday Open Mic & Workshop – Free event at Hopkinton Center for the Arts

Special for ArtWeek during this monthly open mic night, participants were invited to join a community songwriting exercise at the start of the evening.

Frost Beat Concert – Free with admission by Maria Finkelmeier at Frost Ice Bar

Visitors enjoyed a multi-sensory experience where the venue, art, and music created an interactive experience as a percussionist played on ice instruments of all types.

Jazz Safari – $10 event by Court Hill Music Festival and First Unitarian Music Program

Worcester's Joy of Music Program's Jazz Safari ensemble presented the world-premiere fusion concert of live music and TapeArt large-scale artwork creation, a rare experience where visual artists and community members responded to jazz improvisation using colored tape to form exciting collages of color and texture on the walls surrounding the musicians.

Trombones on the River– Free event by Boston Trombone Project

A pop-up concert of a trombone choir on the Charles River, along with a demonstration of how trombones make sound with a trombone for the kids to try!
