

"THE BAYSTATE'S MOST CREATIVE FESTIVAL" -WCVB
APRIL 26 - MAY 5, 2019

For inspiration, read through the following events which range from small to large. You will see that ArtWeek-friendly events have a 'twist': they are interactive, learning-based, behind-the-scenes, and/or provide VIP access. Reach new audiences, test an idea, explore a new partnership, or join in because you want to be part of shining a statewide spotlight on our creative community. See artweekma.org for even more examples!

Fork & Tune – $40 Treats on Washington, Allston/Brighton

Fork and Tune, a unique dining experience at a communal table in a bakery-by-day that used music as its muse for a seven-course meal was designed to showcase spring's freshest ingredients and to evoke the rhythm and themes of—wait for it—Prince's Purple Rain.

Organic Farms are Everywhere – $6 event at Cape Cod Brewery

24 states. 24 farms. 50 hours of footage & interviews. This is the story of the local food movement as told through a crowdsource documentary. Afterwards, the filmmaker led a diverse panel about the growing Farm-to-Table movement, while local farmers offered tastings.

Cut-and-Tape-a-Thon: soft-boiled Zine Workshop – Free event in North Adams

Special for ArtWeek, soft-boiled occupied a storefront for the week, which was transformed into a makerspace and gallery. Emerging artists were supplied with materials to create and display their work.

Frost Beat - Free concert with admission, Frost Ice Bar, Boston

A 'chilling' performance featuring a percussionist who experimented with the sight, sound, and feel of ice as a musical element, creating an interactive concert experience at the site of a bar/lounge in Faneuil Hall.

Newbury Street League Music Crawl - Free event at various businesses, Boston

Live acoustic performances were hosted in different businesses along this famous street, including a special interactive concert and conversation with local musicians.

Spring Art Walk in Maynard - Free event with Maynard Business Alliance

Downtown Maynard came alive as businesses opened their doors and streets became pedestrian-friendly. Special for ArtWeek, live painting and music were enjoyed by all in conjunction with Maynard Cultural Council.

Date Night: Xylograph Your Xylophone – $20 event Audio Concepts, Boston

A furniture maker combined two of his exceptional talents – woodworking and music – to create a memorable date-night. Over wine and cheese, each team made a xylophone from simple common materials and played music using the store's AV equipment.

Making Art with Found Objects – Free event with Artist Jennifer Hunter, West Medford

One man's trash is another man's treasure! West Medford Open Studios artist opened up her home to visitors, sharing tips on her success creating marketable artwork with items such as cat whiskers, scissors, glue, magazine shreds and taxidermy furs! She showcased additional work in her kitchen.

Want to brainstorm or have questions? Want to submit your events?

Email us at artweek@bochcenter.org, sign-up for the ArtWeek newsletter, or read our FAQ's at artweekma.org! Online applications for the Spring 2019 festival open on November 1, 2018. www.artweekma.org